

BROADSTONE HALL PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Week 27 ending 4th April 2025

Welcome to the Broadstone Hall Primary School Newsletter

HEADTEACHERS NOTE:

This week, I had the pleasure to be interviewed by the Year 1 children who asked me lots of lots of questions for their Fact File they are compiling about the school! I was very impressed with their confidence and the quality of their questions.

EID CELEBRATIONS IN SCHOOL

HAPPY EID to all of our Muslim children that celebrated this week – we hope you enjoyed the special Eid menu provided by Zoe & her team who went to great lengths to make it special!

ROCK STEADY CONCERT

Rocksteady performed their 2nd concert this week to a packed hall of parent "groupies!" Rock Steady teach in-school band lessons that are the perfect opportunity for your child to learn to play an instrument, develop life skills, have fun, gain confidence, and boost their wellbeing. As, they progress through the Rocksteady curriculum, they will collect up to 300 different instrument, musicianship, and performance skills along the way. Sign up details are attached to newsletter

FULL OF THE JOYS OF SPRING!!!

What a beautiful week of sunshine we have had and we have definitely made the most of it!

Reception have been on a wander around the field to spot the signs of Spring plus they had a lovely wander up to the Broadstone & Houldsworth Mills to look at the features of the building and to support our learning on past & present.

BOATHOUSE IN THE SUN @ FOREST SCHOOL

BROADSTONE HALL HOCKEY TOURNAMENT @ ST. THOMAS'S

Taking part were BHPS, St. Thomas's, Norris Bank, St. Elisabeths, Fairway & Didsbury Road Primary schools. Broadstone finished 2nd overall, losing to St. Thomas's in the final on penalties. Up to this point they won all their games & finished the league on 15points. TEAM: Joseph B, Eloise H, Felix L, Carys R, Lucas R, Ethan S and Stanley W

BROADSTONE HALL v. ST. ELISABETHS FOOTBALL

Broadstone hosted our first friendly of the season which ended in an emphatic win for Broadstone. It was nice to see new faces representing, going comfortably into half-time with a 3-1 lead. 2nd half they came out flying & scored 7 goals in 18minutes. The boys played some amazing football throughout & had a top attitude for the full game which reflected in the score nicely. Final score 10-2 to Broadstone. TEAM: Woody B, Ted C, Max C, George F, Dylan H, Theo H, Oliver M, Cooper N and Jenson W

WRITER OF THE WEEK:

Reception:

RBW "Confident" – Arlo G Arlo has tried so hard with his writing this week and even wrote his own book with only a little bit of help. He impressed us with his spelling of the HFWs. Well done Arlo!

RLR "Cooperative" – Franklin S Franklin has had a fantastic week. He has been a fantastic shoulder partner and has done some wonderful shared playing inside and outside.

RLE "Cooperative" – Ayda G Ayda has come back to school with a fantastic attitude towards reading and writing, getting it done with a smile! She is a super role model and a top contributor to our class discussions. We are so lucky to have her.

Year 1:

1CL Zoe H for working really hard to apply her phonics knowledge in her writing and using a word mat to support her spelling. Well done!

1CR Eva G For spelling this week's focus words correctly and using and to join her ideas.

Class 1/2:

Amaya G for a massive improvement in spellings. Great work Amaya!

Year 2:

2SH Ellie D for trying hard to use her phonics knowledge to spell words correctly.

2MK Shiloh O For writing super sentences with capital letters and full stops.

Year 3:

3VH Alex M for using lovely language to prepare for our setting description.

3SN Mia G for always actively participating, we love hearing your great ideas. Also, I have enjoyed reading your descriptive sentences about the sewers in Krindlekrax.

Class 3/4:

Aubrey P-W Aubrey has thought of some great emotive language this week and used it in her sentences, alongside prepositions and conjunctions. Well done!

Year 4:

4EE Penny P for consistent effort in writing and handwriting.

4DM Jasmin A for always putting in 100% effort into her writing, checking and editing too. Well done!

Year 5:

5SH Edgar B This writing unit has really inspired Edgar to show us what a great writer he is. Keep it up! Well done Edgar!

5CB Scarlett R for incredible creative sentences when writing from the perspective of an alien!

5LK Oscar D for a great understanding of scientific language. Oscar has used impressive formal vocabulary this week to describe a human from the point of view of an alien!

Year 6:

6JL Isaac K for editing an already amazing piece of writing to make it even better!

6ZW Georgia M for using a range of sentence structures and integrating dialogue to create a strong narrative of Romeo and Juliet!

6CM Lily B for her incredibly dramatic and romantic narrative of Romeo and Juliet.

STAR OF THE WEEK:

Reception:

RBW Bonnie H for her amazing efforts with everything she has done this week! We have seen some super progress with her writing and her confidence is really growing. Well done superstar!

RLR Marnie G - Marnie has been waiting patiently for her turn to wear the jumper and earned it this week for trying hard with her reading both at home and in school and extra effort with her writing.

RLE Yusuf K for taking part in our number session and answering questions and making us so proud.

Year 1:

1CL Eli B for having an excellent week! He has had amazing listening skills and been a great shoulder partner. We are so proud of how hard he has worked.

1CR Lainey B for always being a fantastic role model for other children. She is always ready for learning and tries her best in every lesson.

Class 1/2:

Emmeline R for always making the right choices and being an excellent role model. Keep it up Emmy!

Year 2:

2SH Zayn R for always being a great role model for his peers and following school rules inside and outside the classroom.

2MK Noah BW For being an enthusiast learner with lots of great ideas!

Year 3:

3VH Mason C-D for working with more independence in lessons.

3SN All of 3SN for being a delight to teach. I have enjoyed teaching and getting to know you all and I wish you all the best for the rest of year 3. Keep up the hard work and keep shining. All the best 😊

Class 3/4:

Harry B for being conscientious, kind and a great role model. Year 4:

4EE Otis D for great effort this week in all areas and a fantastic score in a reading assessment.

4DM Theo B for working hard and following instructions first time. Super!

Year 5:

5SH George H I am so proud of George's resilience, which is developing more and more each day, especially in maths and writing – keep it up George!

5CB Joe LR for being very kind to his friends, always ready to start his learning in the classroom and tried super hard this week in everything that he does. Keep this up Joe! 😊

5LK Polly B for a positive outlook on everything this week! Polly has shown resilience during tests and not been afraid to ask for help when she has needed it.

Year 6:

6JL Isla O for a consistent effort in all lessons and a fantastic approach to revision.

6ZW Isaac B for kind and cooperative attitudes, along with some superb writing outcomes this week!

6CM Freya B as her brilliant work has been shown to other classes this week to inspire them and for her great work as a class counsellor.
